Jacksonville July 27th 1844

Dear Mamma:

We shall leave Fernandina Thursday the 31st by steamer Camdelet of the Mallory line - Edith is much better but she gains very slowly and we are impatient for the time to come when we can leave Florida gone at the same time -

John will leave his valuable papers Deeds notes from C. H. Jones secured by mortgage on Union Union &c with Capt. George C. Hilton we wanted you to know in case of accident -

We shall probably be in New York Monday night or Tuesday morning & shall take the earliest boat or train for E. S.

In haste Josephine.
